

what to do. Solving the puzzle requires extracting an ANSWER, which will be a common English word or short phrase. It should become clear when you've found the answer. Sometimes you may think you need to consult external information; that's okay, no resource is off-limits when solving. When you think you know the answer, submit it on our website (<http://puzzle.berkeley.edu>).

Week 2: Flagged Verses

And at Bethuel, and at Hormah, and at Ziklag,
And when they had found him, they said unto him,
All men seek for thee.

Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth beside, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.

For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.

This column is the second in our ongoing series. (You can find an archive of past columns on our website). These puzzles have a TITLE, some flavortext, and the content. Figuring out what to do with the content is the hardest part. The title and flavortext usually indicate the theme of the puzzle, and provide clues about how to manipulate the information you've been given. The full meaning of these clues may only be evident once you've figured out
